

GIVING THANKS

IN THE DIGITAL AGE

FOOTBALL STREAMING SEASON

This fall, football fans are gearing up for an action-packed 2023 season, marked by college conference changes and NFL signings. As live game broadcasting evolves, we understand the concerns of fans missing out. At Copper Valley Telecom, our advanced fiber network guarantees uninterrupted live streaming of both college and NFL football in high definition. Get ready to root for your teams and relish every touchdown. We're here to elevate your football season.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL FANS:

For avid college football fans embracing streaming, choosing the right live streaming TV app is key. Hulu + Live TV offers extensive coverage, including ESPN's games and live network channels, thanks to its deal with Disney. Weekly, fuboTV, provides a plethora of college football games for the sports enthusiasts. Sling TV's Orange + Blue package features channels for various games. You'll want to make sure that the teams and conferences you care most about are covered by the streaming apps and channels in any of these three options, but for most fans, any of them will suit.

NFL ENTHUSIASTS:

For NFL fans, staying updated on your favorite team and rivals is easier than ever with streaming options. NFL Sunday Ticket on YouTube TV gives you access to all games, guaranteeing no missed moments. Additionally, exclusive games on platforms like Prime Video and Peacock, paired with live streaming apps such as YouTube TV, Fubo, Sling TV, or Hulu + Live TV, offer budget-friendly, comprehensive NFL viewing.

At Copper Valley Telecom, we're here to enhance your football journey. Stay connected and enjoy seamless streaming on our high-speed fiber network. Here's to another fantastic season of touchdowns, tackles, and unforgettable moments!

GIVING THANKS IN THE DIGITAL AGE

In the heartwarming spirit of Thanksgiving, we at Copper Valley Telecom are deeply grateful for the incredible power of digital connections that bring us closer, no matter the miles that separate us. This holiday season, as families and friends gather both in person and virtually, our phones and internet serve as the essential bridges, uniting hearts and creating cherished memories. With our ever-expanding fiber network, your online moments become seamless, fast, and crystal-clear. Our commitment to ongoing improvements in our wireless network ensures that your conversations stay uninterrupted and vibrant. We're not just a telecommunication provider; we're your partners in staying connected with those who matter most. Curious about how we can enhance your holiday connections? Visit our website at www.cvtc.org, swing by our storefronts, or give us a call at 800.235.5414. Let's make this Thanksgiving unforgettable together. Here's to togetherness, gratitude, and the joy of staying connected!

COOK SMARTER, NOT HARDER

Get ready to host the perfect Thanksgiving feast with the help of smart kitchen gadgets! Thanks to cutting-edge technology, preparing for the holiday season has never been easier. At Copper Valley Telecom, we're excited to share our favorite smart kitchen devices that will make your Thanksgiving stress-free and enjoyable!

Smart Thermometers: Worried about overcooking your turkey? Smart thermometers ensure your meal is perfectly cooked by sending real-time notifications to your smartphone. No more dry or undercooked turkeys!

Smart Wi-Fi Instant Pot: Save time and space with the Instant Pot Pro Plus. This smart device connects to your home's Wi-Fi, offering access to recipes that cook your dishes perfectly. Receive notifications on your smartphone, allowing you to focus on other tasks while your meal cooks.

Smart Sous Vide: Achieve culinary perfection with smart sous vide devices. Connect them to your tablet or smartphone for recipes, recommended temperatures, and cooking times. Ideal for meats, steaks, and vegetables with the perfect consistency.

Smart Scale: Complete your feast with delicious desserts using a smart kitchen scale. These smart scales connects to apps, helping you measure the right proportions for cakes, pies, and pastries. Say goodbye to endless recipe searches!

These smart kitchen gadgets are just the beginning. Smart appliances like refrigerators, dishwashers, and microwaves can further enhance your kitchen's efficiency and organization. Experience the convenience of a smarter kitchen this Thanksgiving and consider upgrading your appliances for an even better experience next year.

AFFORDABLE TOGETHERNES

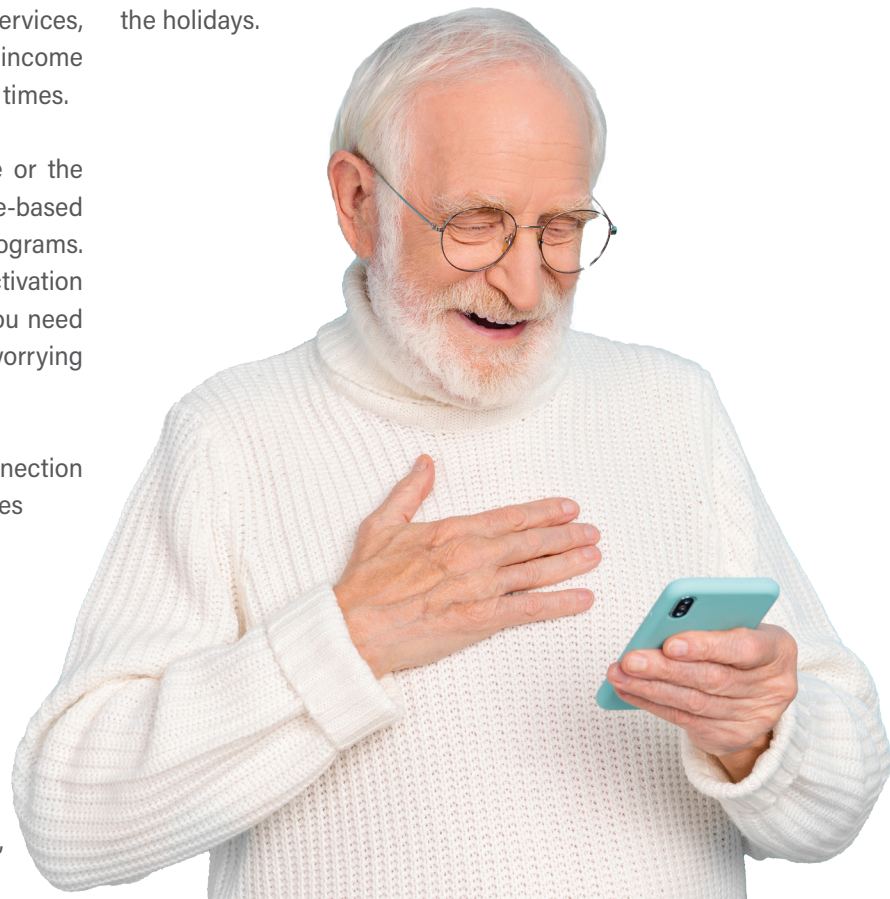

The holiday season, a time for gratitude and togetherness, can be financially stressful for many. If you're struggling to make ends meet, Copper Valley Telecom is here to offer a helping hand, by participating in the Lifeline and Affordable Connectivity federal programs. These initiative provide reduced-cost local or wireless telephone services, and reduced cost internet services to qualifying low-income customers, ensuring crucial connections during challenging times.

Qualifying is simple; applicants certify no existing Lifeline or the Affordable Connectivity Program discounts and meet income-based criteria or subscribe to specific needs-based assistance programs. What sets these programs apart is immediate discount activation upon approval. This means affordable service right when you need it, allowing you to stay connected with loved ones without worrying about hefty bills.

As we approach Thanksgiving, consider the power of connection and gratitude. Lifeline and ACP enable individuals and families to maintain vital connections, share moments of joy, and offer support, regardless of financial constraints. In today's world, staying connected is vital, and Lifeline and the Affordable Connectivity Program serve as beacons of hope, ensuring everyone can experience the warmth and love of the holiday season.

Explore these programs if you're facing financial challenges this holiday season. Visit www.lifelinesupport.org, www.affordableconnectivity.gov, or cvtc.org/lifeline to learn more. Remember, staying connected with your loved ones is a gift that lasts a lifetime, and Copper Valley Telecom is here to make sure no one feels alone during the holidays.
